CHARACTER

“EACH YEAR I GIVE TO WEBB BECAUSE I WANT
TO GIVE BACK SOME OF WHAT WEBB GAVE TO ME.
I LEARNED THE VALUE OF HARD WORK, LEADERSHIP,
PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY AND GOOD CITIZENSHIP.
IT WAS AN EDUCATION THAT PREPARED ME FOR LIFE.”

SHAPING THE FUTURE

Your gift is a wonderful way to express your belief in the educational mission of The Webb Schools and make a real difference in the lives of students and faculty. When you give to The Webb Fund, you make an immediate impact on shaping Webb's future.

Lifelong Returns of a Webb Education

New data from the U.S. Department of Education* show there are long-term benefits from the kind of education Webb delivers when compared with public or other private schools.

- Graduates place higher value on community service and civic participation
- They often express strong satisfaction with their careers
- They are more likely to complete a college or university degree by their mid-20s
- Students go on to pursue a diverse range of college majors while setting strong professional goals

WHO PARTICIPATES IN THE WEBB FUND?

Alumni, parents, grandparents, faculty, staff and friends, all play a vital role in supporting The Webb Fund.

“We give to The Webb Fund because we want to help maintain Webb’s high standards. We know that our participation helps ensure that our child will benefit from Webb’s unique programs and outstanding faculty.”

Ronald & Cindy Ugolick, Parents: Danny '07
Donors since 2003

WEBB FUND FACTS

Your gift inspires other members of the Webb community to participate each year. Last year, over 1,025 alumni, parents, and friends collectively made a $1.06-million investment in Webb students by contributing to The Webb Fund.

With the Schools' modest endowment, The Webb Fund plays a critical role in supporting the annual financial needs of the campus and its spectrum of programs.

Webb Fund gifts support the tuition gap in the School's annual operating budget.

Every gift is important. The percentage of participation at Webb, particularly among alumni and parents, is considered by organizations and foundations when determining grants and funding.

Webb Fund dollars are unrestricted and are spent as the Board of Trustees deems most effective for our students. This financial flexibility is one of Webb's most valued assets.
